What We Do

How does Ambler Savings Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Ambler Savings Bank follows strict privacy procedures in regard to protecting your personal information. Access to your personal information is limited to bank employees who need to know the information to provide products and services to you. In addition, the Bank requires all third parties with a business need to access this information to adhere to similar and equally stringent privacy rules.

How does Ambler Savings Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- * Open an account or deposit money
- * Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- * Use your ATM or debit card
- * Give us your contact information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- * Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- * Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- * Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
