FORT WASHINGTON – Ambler Savings Bank President and CEO, Roger Zacharia, and Retail Officer, Erin Cohen presented Wordsworth Academy with a check for $15,000, which the school used to renovate the gymnasium and purchase a new score board.

Wordsworth Academy, located in Fort Washington, uses the gymnasium for the school’s athletic programs which reinforce social and language skills and assist students in developing the ability to manage their emotions. The school’s basketball team utilizes the gym to host games against opposing schools.

“At Ambler Savings Bank, we know that a good education is not just about exercising the mind, but also about exercising the body. Students should graduate from high school well rounded, not just educationally, but physically, socially and emotionally.” said Mr. Zacharia.

“As a community bank, we are very proud to partner with Wordsworth Academy, whose program benefits their students’ education as well as the community around them,” said Ms. Cohen.

“Support from the Ambler Savings Bank means so much to our students and school community. This generous donation has helped us renovate our gym and thereby send the message to our students that they are valued by the community around us. Building self-esteem in this way helps Wordsworth achieve its mission of helping students develop into productive adults by giving them the skills to be self-sufficient and successful.” said Debra Lacks, Wordsworth’s CEO.
