

Ambler Savings Bank Sponsors Ambler Symphony's 2016 Children's Concert

AMBLER — Ambler Savings Bank President & CEO, Roger Zacharia, presented a check for $1,500 to the Ambler Symphony Orchestra to sponsor the annual Children's Concert, held at the Ambler Theater.

The Saturday afternoon concert is designed with families of small children in mind and features some timeless and beloved works. During the 2015 Children's Concert, the local orchestra featured Tubby the Tuba by George Kleinsinger.

"At Ambler Savings Bank, we continue to invest in our community, and help make Ambler a great place to live, work and play," said Mr. Zacharia.

The orchestra has several more exciting performances this year. Visit amblersymphony.org or details.

The donation from Ambler Savings Bank will help Ambler Symphony continue to bring quality, classical music to the Ambler area.

Ambler Savings Bank, whose headquarters and main branch is located in Ambler, PA, has additional locations in Fairview Village, Limerick and Schwenksville. Learn more about Ambler Savings Bank on the website www.AmblerSavingsBank.com.

(From left) Roger Zacharia, Ambler Savings Bank President and CEO; Ambler Symphony Orchestra Conductor, Jack Moore; President of the Board, John Mahony; and Michael Bromberg, Vice President of the Board.