

Two Long-Time Ambler Savings Bank Trustees Retire

AMBLER – Two long-time members are retiring from the Ambler Savings Bank Board of Trustees. Daniel Ritter and Alfred “Butch” Rotelle will retire on May 15. They served on the Board together for 44 years.

Mr. Ritter was elected to the Board in 1972 and has served as Chairman since 1998. He was the owner of Beautyguard Manufacturing Co. in Ambler and has been an active member of the Ambler Rotary Club for nearly 50 years.

Mr. Rotelle was elected to the Board in 1973 and has served as Vice Chairman since 1998. He worked over 40 years in the family’s wholesale food distribution business, Rotelle Foods, and is a generous supporter of the North Penn YMCA.
