

Ambler Savings Bank Elects Chairman, Two New Board Members

AMBLER – Ambler Savings Bank is pleased to announce the election of Geoffrey Ries as Chairman of their Board of Trustees, and the election of Gregory Herb and Kevin Cuthill to their Board of Trustees. The Board unanimously elected Mr. Herb and Mr. Cuthill at their recent meeting. Both men were formerly on the Board of Bally Savings Bank, which merged with Ambler Savings Bank in 2017.

Mr. Ries has served on the Ambler Savings Bank Board of Trustees since 1996 and during his tenure has chaired and served on various committees. He is a graduate of Syracuse University and Temple University School of Law.

Mr. Ries is a long time member of the Ambler business community having joined Gessner Products in 1976. He is currently Executive Vice President. Among other community activities, he has served as President of the Rotary Club of Ambler and Chairman of the Board of the Ambler Area YMCA.

Mr. Herb is the President of Herb Real Estate, Inc. with offices in Boyertown & Pottstown, PA. Mr. Herb has been in the real estate industry since 1979. He holds an Associate degree with a major in real estate and has earned the designations of ABR, CRB, CRS, GREEN and GRI.

Mr. Herb served on the Board of Directors and was past-president of the Montgomery County Association of Realtors, 2009 President of the PA Association of Realtors and 2010 Regional Vice President for the National Association of Realtors, as well as being on the Board of Directors for the Realtors Legislative Alliance. Mr. Herb has served on the Board of Directors for the National Association of Realtors since 1999 and has served on many committees including the Executive Committee.

Mr. Herb has served multiple community organizations including sitting on the Board of Directors for the Boyertown Area YMCA, the United Way, and the Boy Scouts of America, and the Hawk Mountain Council where he received the Silver Beaver Award. He is a member of the Tri-County Chamber of Commerce, Building a Better Boyertown and Berks-Mont Business Association. He also volunteers with the historic Colebrookdale Railroad as a narrator. Currently he serves as President of the Foundation for Boyertown Area Education, an organization designed to enrich the educational experiences for students of the Boyertown Area School District.

Mr. Cuthill began his career in Army Intelligence as a Paratrooper and Russian Linguist. After moving into the private sector, Mr. Cuthill spent many years developing businesses in the United States and internationally. He joined Edward Jones Investments as a Financial Advisor in 2012.

Mr. Cuthill earned the CFP®, Certified Financial Planner designation, through Wake Forest University and the AAMS®, Accredited Asset Management Specialist designation, from the American College for Financial Planning. He holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Penn State University and completed his undergraduate work at Trinity University in San Antonio, TX, and the Defense Language Institute at the Presidio of Monterey, CA.

Mr. Cuthill serves his community in a variety of ways, including serving as Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 36 in Gilbertsville, working with the Technology Student Association as a judge at regional events, and serving on several local boards. In 2014 he was presented with the prestigious Ted Jones Spirit of Caring award by his fellow Financial Advisors for his volunteer efforts.
