Local Kids Offered Summer Programs Thanks to Non-Profit Do Better 4 Steve with help of $1,000 Donation from Ambler Savings Bank

Ambler, PA – Rapidly growing non-profit, Do Better 4 Steve, will change the lives of some local kids this summer, thanks to the help of a recent donation from Ambler Savings Bank. Helping disabled, disadvantaged and discriminated-against youth, especially during the summer months, is at the core of Do Better 4 Steve’s mission. Funding will help pay for tuition to local summer camps and attendance at equine therapy classes at the Kindle Hill Foundation.

“We’ve experienced firsthand the needs of families with disabled children having raised our son Sam who is developmentally disabled. Not all of these children have the means to experience activities that most kids take for granted. That’s what Do Better 4 Steve is here for,” said Liz Cammarota from Do Better 4 Steve.

Do Better 4 Steve works with the Wissahickon School District to identify youth who could use their support.

“Donations like the one from Ambler Savings Bank will make it possible for us to help dozens of disadvantaged youth this summer,” she continued.

“We are happy to support Do Better 4 Steve’s mission to provide opportunities for kids in need this summer,” said Erin Cohen, Vice President and Retail Officer, Ambler Savings Bank.

Do Better 4 Steve is a certified 501(C)(3) nonprofit serving Ambler, Wissahickon and surrounding communities. Our mission is to help disabled, disadvantaged and discriminated-against youth in our community achieve their fullest potential in a world stacked against them. The world was a better place with Steve in it, so for Steve, we will do better.
