FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Supporting Community Banks Across Pennsylvania, Roger Zacharia Appointed as the Pennsylvania Association of Community Bankers (PACB) Chairperson

Ambler Savings Bank's, President & CEO, Roger Zacharia was recently appointed as Chairperson for the Pennsylvania Association of Community Bankers (PACB). He will serve the year-long term supporting the organization's mission to promote the principles of community banking and represent the interests of its members.

"My primary focus as Chairperson is advocating for consumers and small businesses. I look forward to shining a bright light on the benefits of partnering with community banks," Roger says.

PACB exclusively represents the interests of over 50 community banks chartered in the Commonwealth. Their mission is to preserve, promote and protect the community banking industry and the men and women who work to make the financial dreams of their communities and neighbors become realities.

Roger Zacharia was named the President and CEO of Ambler Savings Bank in 2014 and is a certified public accountant with 20 years of banking, finance, and accounting experience. He lives in the Maple Glen section of Upper Dublin Township with his wife and four children. He is also an active member of the Ambler Rotary Club and a baseball coach with the Upper Dublin Junior Athletic Association.
