Ambler Savings Bank Employees Serve On Their Day Off At Variety Club Camp

Worcester, Pennsylvania – Carrying on the community banking value of service, employees of Ambler Savings Bank spent a day working at Variety - the Children’s Charity of the Delaware Valley’s 77-acre campus.

Variety is best known for its summer camp and vocational programming for children and young adults with disabilities.

“We appreciate the support from Ambler Savings Bank to help clean up camp for the fall. It takes a team to keep up with all the buildings and outdoor spaces to make the camp run at 100%,” explained Kristin Podwojski, Director of Operations, Variety.

Employees from the Bank used their day off on Monday, October 10th, to help repair outdoor benches, clean up the vocational center and paint the produce cart used to sell their garden harvest in the community.

“Seeing the camp and hearing how their work is providing a safe space for children with disabilities made me feel how important it is to be here today to support their mission,” said Paul Shearer, Branch Operations Administrator.
